DEFINITIONS

Pre-teaching period: The week before the teaching period. It is recommended that you spend this time familiarising yourself with the online classroom and complete readings as required.

Deadline to self enrol: The last date you can enrol online.

Teaching period: The period in which weekly content is delivered in the LMS.

Fees due: The date your course fees must be received by the University. If you are paying by bank transfer, please note funds must be cleared by the fee due date which can take up to 7 days. Non-payment or late payment may result in your access to the online classroom being revoked.

Census date: The last day to withdraw from a subject, or apply for a leave of absence or course withdrawal, without financial liability. Census dates may be different for each subject. You can review census dates by checking the subject entry in the University Handbook.

Last date to withdraw without fail: The last day to withdraw from a subject without incurring a fail grade.

Assessment period: All assessments should be completed during or before this period.
